SPRING / SUMMER 2023

A CASTLE'S REAWAKENING

Spring, sunshine and warmth are awakening the world and we too have breathed new life into a long-hidden treasure: Süßenbrunn Castle.

After a long slumber, we cordially invite you to a tour of the premises of this Renaissance castle on the outskirts of Vienna. Which, by the way, you can now also rent for your wedding or other private celebration.

This seasons art direction came from husband to Anna Reiter-Smith and long time company photographer Jamie McGregor Smith, who by the way got married in Süßenbrunn five years ago when it was still a sleeping beauty. Inspired by this space's rejuvenated interiors and our new collections light footed energy, we worked with a small passionate team to freely create imagery that gets to the heart of the new season's message: Light gives courage, so strive for your goals and stretch your toes in the right direction. Our shoes will accompany you along the way.

On behalf of the Ludwig Reiter Team, we wish you a lot of pleasure while browsing!

A MUSES KISS

Emilie Flöge moved with grace and self-confidence on the Viennese parquet of the 1900s. She was a strong woman, one of the first couturières and more than just a muse and lifelong partner of Gustav Klimt, she had both feet firmly on the ground. Goodyear-welted sandals like these would have suited her perfectly, and she would have fitted Klimt with a pair of Triestiner shoes, so we can imagine the pair strolling around Lake Attersee.

SOMETHING BLUE

With a quick step, possibly in azure blue sneakers made of Italian suede, we are moving towards the wedding season. It should not go unmentioned that the newly renovated Süßenbrunn Castle can now also be rented as a wedding venue. Something borrowed, then!

HIGH CLIMBER

We all have mountains to climb, our Trainers do it in style. Ludwig Reiter, by the way, is one of the few companies that offers only genuine leather lined sports shoes, except for the sole, nothing here is synthetic or plastic, so the shoes can be worn barefoot comfortably.

WHITE DREAM

The white trainers could even be worn with a wedding dress. But if you get cold feet and start to make a run for it in the style of Julia Roberts, the runaway bride, at least you won't break into a sweat, the natural leather lining will make sure of that.

A BREATH OF FRESH AIR

Espadrilles have a long tradition in Spain. They are the perfect companions throughout a hot summer. Ludwig Reiter has refreshed this classic: soft suede on the outside, leather lining on the inside, elaborately sewn in the sacchetto technique and adorned with a narrow linen ribbon from the traditional Austrian weaving mill Leitner Leinen. Thus, the shoes last longer than one summer and can even be worn smartly to work.

WHY GOODYEAR-WELTED?

If you always wanted to know why the so-called Goodyear-welting process is called the royal way of making shoes, and why many fashion designers still swear by welted shoes, and why really heavy-duty shoes, such as military boots, are still made with this technique all over the world, and indeed why they are supposedly so good for the feet and, in general, why are they expensive - then we recommend a visit to our Viennese manufactory, a look at the craft explains more than 1000 words.

BLINDINGLY BEAUTIFUL

Given the shift in fashion towards more comfort, Cinderella's glass shoes seem pretty old-fashioned. Ludwig Reiter has the solution for the shoe that goes with every outfit and every occasion: nude-coloured ballerinas made of coated calfskin, complemented by a clutch. With her watch tucked inside, Cinderella would not have missed the time either.

SUNSHINE AND SHADOWS

Close your eyes: we walk through the enchanting cultural landscape of the Amalfi Coast, through olive groves and lemon gardens. On Capri, a sophisticated lifestyle is enjoyed, it is a joy to look at the colourful life. Tradition, joie de vivre and a value for things, that's also what Ludwig Reiter stands for.

ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY

Indispensable for Ludwig Reiter is good quality, also of course in the choice of the material. The calfskin used for these Monks comes from Tanneries du Puy, a tannery founded in 1946 in the town of Puy-en-Velay in France. According to the company, it supplies "the most famous shoe and luxury leather goods manufacturers in the world." The horsehide of the necessaire comes from the eponymous Horween tannery in Chicago, which is also known for the best quality.

DECIDING POINT

In tennis, anything seems possible: high top or low top, forehand or backhand, inside in or inside out, old or new insole? The leather-covered insole is replaceable, a big point when it comes to the comfort and longevity of the shoes.

TANGERINE DREAMS

And the Beatles already sang: "Picture yourself in a boat on a river. With tangerine trees and marmalade skies. Somebody calls you, you answer quite slowly. A girl with kaleidoscope eyes." Lucy's eyes would have lit up at the sight of the accessories made of fine Grain Dauphin leather from the Degermann tannery.

ENCHANTINGLY INTERWOVEN

A classic from Ludwig Reiter is the sandal Pamina with woven leather. Inspired by the opera and woven in the style of intrecciato leather, a love story most definitely: "This image is enchantingly beautiful" "With men who feel love" "Everything feels the joys of love". CREATE YOUR OWN MEMORIES AT SÜßENBRUNN CASTLE

As with our products, the renovation of the Süßenbrunn Castle preserved the traditional details and functionality, but at the same time allowed for adaptations so that new possibilities could arise.

Thus, from now on, the castle can also be rented privately.

The historic building has been extensively refurbished over the past four years and now offers an enchanting place to experience special moments. Rent the castle's festive premises for private celebrations: a modern infrastructure and four charming guest apartments offer enough space, also for overnight stays. Sleep soundly like Sleeping Beauty to be awakened in the morning by the chirping of birds in the castle park! For Snow White, who needs to get home to her dwarfs, Vienna's city center is only 20 minutes away by car.

We invite you to visit Süßenbrunn Castle and take a look through the keyhole.
